

Major Trauma AHP Subgroup Webinar Series

This series aims to contribute to the learning and development needs of all allied health professionals (AHPs) and nurses who are involved in the rehabilitation of major trauma patients, along the entire rehabilitation pathway from inpatient to community and outpatient services.

Audience – Allied Health Professionals; Physiotherapists, Occupational Therapists, Speech and Language Therapists, Podiatrists, Orthotists, Dietitians. Working in acute care, rehabilitation, community and outpatient settings.

Nursing staff working in acute, rehabilitation, community and outpatient settings; major trauma, trauma and orthopaedics, neurosciences, rehabilitation

Lunchtime Webinar – Tuesday, 28 February 2023
12.30pm – 1.30pm

“Meeting Rehabilitation Challenges” A Complex Case Presentation

- To demonstrate the complexity of major trauma patient presentations and the challenges to meet rehabilitation needs
- To demonstrate through a case presentation, the benefits of intensive rehabilitation in the recovery pathway
- To demonstrate the importance of multidisciplinary rehabilitation along the recovery pathway to improve functional outcomes

Keynote Speaker
Aimee Bradley

Advanced Practitioner Physiotherapist, Musgrave Park Orthopaedic Unit

