

Major Trauma AHP Subgroup Webinar Series

This series aims to contribute to the learning and development needs of all allied health professionals (AHPs) and nurses who are involved in the rehabilitation of major trauma patients, along the entire rehabilitation pathway from inpatient to community and outpatient services.

Audience – Allied Health Professionals; Physiotherapists, Occupational Therapists, Speech and Language Therapists, Podiatrists, Orthotists, Dietitians. Working in acute care, rehabilitation, community and outpatient settings.

Nursing staff working in acute, rehabilitation, community and outpatient settings; major trauma, trauma and orthopaedics, neurosciences, rehabilitation

Lunchtime Webinar – Tuesday 28th March 2023
12.30pm – 1.30pm

“Management of Traumatic Spinal Fractures – Key Considerations for Rehabilitation”

- To improve understanding of the principles of acute orthopaedic management
- To enhance knowledge of the current spinal braces used and timeframes for recovery
- To describe the components of rehabilitation in traumatic spinal patients
- To demonstrate the importance of rehabilitation progression in achieving functional goals

Keynote Speaker

Catherine Elliman

Clinical Specialist Physiotherapist

Acute Spinal Ward 4D

Royal Victoria Hospital

