

The HSC Clinical Education Centre are delighted to host a series of webinars in partnership with the Royal College of Midwives in 2025

Navigating Needs: bridging the gap in maternity care

Webinar 2: Focusing on cultural minorities and inequalities

Tuesday 23rd September, 6.30pm - 8pm

Speakers:

- Debbie Garland (Specialist Cultural Liaison Midwife, BHSC)
- Grace McAleer (Registered Nurse, BHSC)
- Ita McGaughey (Registered Midwife, Sure Start Dungannon, SHSC)
- Avril Edgar (Founder of Acacia Path)

Audience:

All HSCNI staff involved in Maternity Services

The aim of the webinar series is to equip participants with the knowledge, awareness and skills to identify, address and reduce inequalities within maternity services. The series seeks to foster inclusive, compassionate and culturally competent care that will empower healthcare professionals to advocate for systematic change and improved maternal health outcomes for all women

Click here to
register or
scan QR code

www.cec.hscni.net