Reflections on Supporting Women's Choices from The Renfrew Report

30th March 2026

18.30 - 18.45 - Welcome and introductions - housekeeping / administration

18.45- 19.15 - Dr Jenny McNeill – Reviewing Renfrew Report – Jenny is a midwife and a Reader in the School of Nursing and Midwifery at Queens University, Belfast. Her research focuses on exploring and evaluating the links between what happens during pregnancy, birth or the postnatal period and the resultant clinical or social outcomes, with a particular emphasis on public health. Jenny’s research interests also include midwifery education, in particular the use and understanding of evidence and the preparation of midwives for public health roles.

19.15- 19.45 – Tracey MacCormack - Nursing and Midwifery Council – Prior to becoming the Assistant Director for Midwifery at the NMC, Tracey was the National Maternity Improvement Advisor with NHS England and also worked as Director of Midwifery and Gynecology at Kings College Hospital.

19.45-20.00 – Questions to panel members.
